Dear Mrs. Fanelli:

Your considerate note has been received with deep appreciation. I remember well meeting you on one of your Sunday visits with us at Highland. We think so much of your relatives here, and appreciated the opportunity of having you visit with them.

I do thank you for your compliment. We hope that others sense the same depth of worship and concern with which you responded to our services. Please accept my personal gratitude for the kindness that was revealed in your thoughtful note.

Sincerely yours,

John Allen Chalk
